The Village of Turin is the newest neighborhood village in the master-planned community of Flying Horse and will be one of the final areas where you'll have the opportunity to build a home from our Classic Collection of ranch and 2-story homes in Flying Horse. Established in 2004, Flying Horse has become recognized as Colorado Springs #1 New Home Community by readers of the Gazette and the Colorado Springs Business Journal for 9 consecutive years.

The new homes in The Village of Turin at Flying Horse are designed to complement the surrounding neighborhood villages while introducing new color schemes and exterior elevations. Located just minutes from The Club at Flying Horse with easy access to Flying Horse Club Drive and community parks and trails, Flying Horse showcases many of Classic Homes' most popular ranch and 2-story floorplans. All new homes include the initiation fee to become a Social Fitness Member at The Club at Flying Horse, which is your ticket to the best social, fitness, aquatics, and athletic activities in northern Colorado Springs.

Year after year, Classic Homes and Flying Horse have been named "Best of the Springs" by readers of The Gazette and the Colorado Springs Business Journal.
